WORD given at New Life Christian Center

"Walk With Me" -- October 11th, 2026

Pastor Glen Kline

The greatest exaltation that you have to give to me, says the Lord, is when you allow Me to walk with you. When you trust Me to be by your side in the middle of all difficulties.
When, in the clouds of life, I become your light. In the darkness of night. I become your light.
You exalt Me when you invite Me to walk with you.

So don't use Me as "a day when things are bad" God, don't use Me as a God when things are good, but rather walk with Me every day. Listen to Me moment by moment when I speak to you and help you, guide you, walk with you. For I will be your path, says the Lord. I will be your path. Invite Me to walk with you. Invite me to walk with you. In Jesus name.

Father. Thank you. We bless you, Lord God. We want you to walk with us.

We want you, Father God, to be willing to hold our hand when the mud runs deep.
We want you to hold our hands when our feet won't move. We want you to hold our hands when nothing in our life makes sense. We want you to hold our hand when our trust is waning and we wonder why You haven't yet done what Your word so clearly says You do.
We want, Father God, to walk with You in ever increasing trust. In Jesus name, Amen. Amen.
