If you think, the Lord would say, if you think that your hole is so deep that you can't get out of it, just look up. I'm right there. I'm reaching out my arms to you. I'm reaching out my hands, for you were never meant to be in a pit. You were never meant to be discouraged. You were never meant to live in discouragement.

For I have great plans. Even if you can't see it, even if you can't see what I'm doing in your life, I am doing it. I am making the way, I am putting this sea... I am making the high places low and the low places high. And it's on level ground that I want you to walk through. But you can't see it when you're looking at what's around you.

When you look at me, when you look at me, I will provide the way, I will make it happen. When it seems impossible, Don't give up hope. Don't stop trusting me. Don't stop walking one step at a time. Believe, trust and see For I have put plans so much better than you even know. I have good plans. I just want to show you.

I just want to hold your hand and walk you through. I want you to see how much you are loved. I want you to see your value, your value is not in what you've done wrong or the things you missed. Don't focus on that. Focus on me. Focus on what I am creating you to be. How I am changing you from the inside.

Your heart! Your heart is what I'm after. I want your heart. I want your heart above all else. And I was willing to sacrifice my Son on that cross. Because I want the chance to hold your hand. I want the chance to show you how valuable you are. And you are so valuable. So valuable. Don't let the world define who you are.

Don't let your mistakes define who you are. Let me define who you are. For I love you with an everlasting love.
