“Curtain”

So the Lord would say there is a curtain that I pull back in your life. A curtain that allows you to see from where you stand into where I stand.

A curtain that holds back what heaven has for you. A curtain, a Blinder. A curtain that you pull back and give us glimpses in.

So ask me for that, says the Lord. In the same way that Stephen knew to look up.

And he said, I see the Lord. Father, help us to know when you're pulling back that curtain so that we can see.

Father, just get a glimpse. Lord God, of what you're showing us. So there is a curtain that the Lord would pull back to show us what he can't say to us for lack of understanding what he can show to us.

For clarity of understanding. In Jesus name,
Amen
